

Name _____

Different Eyes on the Road

Directions: The story is told by a third-person narrator, but imagine how the events would feel if told through the eyes of a different character. Choose one character below and rewrite part of the story (6-8 sentences) from their point of view.

Character Choices:

- Bailey (the father)
- The Misfit
- June Star (the granddaughter)
- Red Sammy

Choose a scene (the car trip, the restaurant stop, or the encounter with the Misfit). Rewrite it from your chosen character's point of view.

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The top corners of the paper are rounded. A thin purple line forms a border around the entire page. There are 20 horizontal lines in total, evenly spaced across the page.