Different Eyes on the Road Answer Key

Sample Rewrite (from June Star's point of view):

I kicked the seat in front of me because I was bored of riding. Grandma kept talking about old houses and acting like she knew everything. When the car crashed, I screamed but also felt angry at the cat for causing it. I saw the man with glasses coming down the road, and I didn't like the way he looked at us. Daddy looked scared for the first time ever, and that scared me too. I wished I was anywhere but there.
