Sample Diary Entry (The Grandmother):

Dear Diary,

Today I tried my best to keep the family on the right path, but no one listened to me. I warned them about that criminal on the loose, but they ignored me. I wanted to see that old house from my childhood, and I thought it would be a lovely adventure. But everything went wrong when the car overturned. Meeting that man, The Misfit, filled me with fear. Yet, in the end, I saw something in him that reminded me of my own children. I reached out, hoping he would understand that we are all connected. I don't know if it mattered, but for a moment, I felt close to grace.
