

Name _____

Through Younger Eyes

Directions: The play is told mainly through the experiences of the Younger family as a whole. Imagine how the story might change if told through the eyes of specific characters. Answer the questions below in complete sentences, using evidence from the play to support your ideas.

1. If the story were told entirely from Walter's point of view, what details would be emphasized more strongly? What might be left out?
2. If the play followed Ruth's perspective, how might the tone and focus of the story change, especially regarding her daily struggles?
3. From Beneatha's point of view, what themes would stand out most clearly, and why?
4. If the story were told by Mama (Lena Younger), how would her values shape the way events were described?
5. Imagine if Mr. Lindner were the narrator. How would the depiction of the Youngers and the neighborhood conflict be different?
6. From Travis's point of view, what parts of the play might seem most confusing, and what would be most important to him?
