Walter's Choices

Directions: Walter Younger makes several important decisions that affect the entire family. Some of his choices create conflict, while others restore dignity and hope. Use the discussion starters below to debate in pairs or small groups. After discussing, write a short response for each question.

1. Was Walter right to trust Willy and Bobo with the investment money? Why or why not?

---

2. When Walter loses the money, does that mistake define him as irresponsible, or can it be forgiven?

---

---

3. Was it fair for Walter to dream so big when his family was struggling with daily needs?

---

---

4. At the end of the play, Walter rejects Lindner's offer. Do you believe this was the best decision for his family's future?

---

5. Overall, do you think Walter grows as a character by the end of the play? Why or why not?
