

Name _____

Threads of a Dream Answer Key

1. Dreams - Walter's goal reflects his ambition to rise above poverty.
2. Race - The house purchase puts them directly in conflict with segregation and racism.
3. Dreams - Beneatha's hope of becoming a doctor is a personal aspiration.
4. Race - Lindner represents societal prejudice and racial discrimination.
5. Family - Ruth's concern is centered on providing for her household.
6. Family - Walter's mistake hurts his loved ones most, not just himself.
7. Race - Asagai encourages Beneatha to think about cultural identity and racism.
8. Family - Mama entrusts Walter with responsibility for the family's well-being.
9. Family - Their unity shows the strength of their bonds.
10. Dreams - Walter finally asserts dignity and the dream of a better life, not just money.

Explanation:

By linking passages and scenarios to themes, students learn to recognize how dreams, race, and family interweave to form the play's deeper message. This activity strengthens critical reading and helps students connect individual scenes to broader social and emotional issues.