

Name _____

Treehouse Fort Blanks

Directions: Read the story carefully. Fill in each blank with a or an to complete the passage. Think about the sound that comes after the blank to help you decide which article fits best.

Yesterday, Noah decided to build _____ amazing treehouse in his backyard. He gathered _____ hammer, _____ pile of wood, and _____ old ladder from the shed. Before he began, he ate _____ apple for energy and drank _____ glass of water. Soon, he heard _____ owl hooting from _____ oak tree nearby. After hours of work, Noah finally built _____ sturdy platform high above the ground. He called his friend Lily to come see it. "That's _____ incredible fort!" she said with excitement. Together, they planned to decorate it with lights and hang _____ orange flag from the top.