My Circuits Got Crossed Again!

Even the smartest AI can slip up when words sound alike. Each paragraph below was written by our eager (but slightly scrambled) robot. Your mission: Read carefully, find the exact word mistake in each paragraph, correct it, and explain what clue helped you fix it. Write your answers on the lines after each passage.

Paragraph 1: The Great Dessert Race - Yesterday, the camels lined up for the annual Dessert Marathon. The AI announcer cheered, "These athletes will cross miles of sugar before the sun sets!" The crowd looked confused as the runners started moving through hot sand under the blazing sun.

Mistaken word: _____ Correct word: _____

Context clue: _____

Paragraph 2: The Polite Knight - Our AI history bot wrote about a brave night who wore shiny armor and protected the castle. It said the night always bowed to the queen before battle, and sometimes he fought dragons until sunrise.

Mistaken word: _____ Correct word: _____

Context clue: _____

Paragraph 3: The Hungry Artist - The painting robot proudly described its new masterpiece: "I used bright colors to capture the flower of the ocean." Everyone expected a garden scene, but instead they saw waves crashing and ships sailing across a stormy sea.

Mistaken word: _____ Correct word: _____

Context clue: _____

Paragraph 4: The Missing Tail - In the AI's animal report, it said, "The puppy wagged its tale happily when its owner came home." The teacher smiled but reminded the AI that stories can't wag, no matter how happy they are.
