

Spot the Logic Glitch! Answer Key

1. AI said: The sun put on its pajamas and went to bed behind the mountains.

What's wrong: The sun doesn't wear pajamas or sleep; it only appears to "set."

Fixed version: The sun set behind the mountains, and the sky grew dark.

2. AI said: The teacher poured homework into everyone's backpack like soup.

What's wrong: Homework isn't a liquid that can be poured; it's papers or assignments.

Fixed version: The teacher handed out homework to everyone before they left.

3. AI said: The refrigerator got hungry and ate all the leftovers.

What's wrong: A refrigerator doesn't eat; it stores food.

Fixed version: The refrigerator was full of leftovers after dinner.

4. AI said: The car swam across the lake to get to the parking lot faster.

What's wrong: Cars can't swim; they drive on roads, not water.

Fixed version: The car drove around the lake to reach the parking lot.

5. AI said: The baby built a rocket ship and flew to the moon before nap time.

What's wrong: Babies can't build or fly rockets; they're too young.

Fixed version: The baby played with a toy rocket before nap time.

6. AI said: My shoes called my socks to tell them they were running late.

What's wrong: Shoes and socks can't talk or make phone calls.

Fixed version: I couldn't find my socks, so I put on my shoes a bit late.