

Name _____

Same Scene, Different Vibes Answer Key

Version 1: Pirate - Opening (Underline):

"Arrr, the tavern door creaked like a mast in a storm..."

Likely Circle (Slang/Style Words):

"Arrr", "me tankard", "scallywag", "gold"

Likely Box (Tone/Imagery):

- "creaked like a mast in a storm" (nautical image)
- "eyeing the newcomer with suspicion" (rough/guarded tone)

Possible Extra Pirate Line (Add):

- "Best be watchin' yer back, or ye'll be walkin' the plank by dawn!"

Version 2: Vampire - Opening (Underline):

"The tavern's air was thick with mortal breath, clinging to the walls like mist."

Likely Circle (Style Words):

"mortal breath", "cloaked in darkness", "ancient and irresistible", "my hunger"

Likely Box (Tone/Imagery):

- "clinging to the walls like mist" (gothic imagery)
- "fate itself had guided them" (dramatic tone)

Possible Extra Vampire Line (Add):

- "Ah, what sweet crimson fate delivers to me tonight."

Version 3: Cowboy- Opening (Underline):

"The door swung open slow, dust trailing in behind the stranger."

Likely Circle (Style Words):

"door swung open slow", "dust trailing in", "boots hit the floorboards", "tipped my hat low"

Likely Box (Tone/Imagery):

- "like he owned the place already" (rugged, confrontational tone)
- "trouble had just walked in" (Western showdown feel)

Possible Extra Cowboy Line (Add):

- "Reckon this night's about to get a whole lot louder."