

Name _____

(Headline Writer) Teacher Notes - What to Look For

here are no single "right answers," but good headlines should be:

- Concise (8–12 words)
- Reflective of the time period's tone (surprise, excitement, worry, curiosity)
- Capture the essence of the invention's impact

Sample Headlines (for teacher use):

- "Scientist Proposes Test to See if Machines Can Think" (1950)
- "New Computer Program Talks Like a Therapist" (1966)
- "AI Doctor Program Suggests Life-Saving Treatments" (1970s)
- "Computer Defeats World Chess Champion in Stunning Match" (1997)
- "Apple Introduces Talking Phone Assistant" (2011)
- "Chatbot Takes World by Storm, Millions Use AI Daily" (2022)
