AI Vocabulary in Headlines

News headlines are short and punchy - they often use powerful vocabulary to quickly get attention. Sometimes, the same AI word can mean different things depending on the context.

Instruction - Read each headline below. Write what you think the bolded word means in that specific headline. Be ready to share how the meaning might change in a different situation.

Headline 1 - "Tech company unveils new algorithm to make online shopping smarter." What does algorithm mean here?

_____

Headline 2 - "AI system shows bias when identifying faces in photos." What does bias mean here?

_____

Headline 3 - "Chatbot demonstrates remarkable accuracy in answering medical questions." What does accuracy mean here?

_____

Headline 4 - "Schools debate whether AI tools promote or harm creativity in students."  What does creativity mean here?

_____

Headline 5 - "Government considers new regulations to guide safe AI use." What does regulations mean here?

_____

Headline 6 - "Researchers warn about the ethics of training AI with personal data." What does ethics mean here?

_____

Headline 7 - "AI program achieves human-level performance in video game tournaments." What does performance mean here?

_____