Name _____

TMI: Too Much Info?

Directions: Read each real-life situation below. Decide if you would share the information or not, and explain why in one short line. Think about what kind of data it is, who might see it, and what could happen next.

1. A game app asks for your location to unlock a special prize.

Share This? (Yes or No) Why? _____

2. A photo-editing app wants access to all your camera photos before you can use filters.

Share This? (Yes or No) Why? _____

3. An AI homework helper asks for your full name and school "to personalize your experience."

Share This? (Yes or No) Why? _____

4. A shopping website offers a discount if you share your email and date of birth.

Share This? (Yes or No) Why? _____

5. A quiz online asks for your best friend's name to "see how well you know each other."

Share This? (Yes or No) Why? _____

6. A voice assistant wants to record all your voice commands "to get to know you better."

Share This? (Yes or No) Why? _____

7. A new AI art app asks you to upload a selfie to turn it into a cartoon.

Share This? (Yes or No) Why? _____

8. A social media site suggests tagging your location in every post "to connect with nearby friends."

Share This? (Yes or No) Why? _____

9. A health tracker app asks for access to your sleep schedule and step count.

Share This? (Yes or No) Why? _____

10. A "personality test" app asks questions about your family, fears, and favorite teachers.

Share This? (Yes or No) Why? _____