

Name _____

Reading The Room

Directions: Think about each situation below. Then discuss with a partner what clues (tone, dress, or environment) tell you how to act. After your discussion, write your short answer for how you would behave in that setting.

1. You walk into a classroom where everyone is seated quietly and the teacher is giving directions.

2. You enter a birthday party at a friend's house. Music is playing and people are laughing.

3. You are attending a school assembly where a guest speaker is talking about safety.

4. You're at a family dinner in a nice restaurant. Everyone is dressed neatly and speaking softly.

5. You're at a soccer game and your team just scored a goal.
