

Sam's School Day Answer Key

Story to be read by the teacher: Sam liked going to school, but sometimes he forgot the rules for each place. In the classroom, he sometimes talked too much when the teacher was speaking. His teacher reminded him to use a quiet voice. At lunch in the cafeteria, Sam remembered to say "please" and "thank you" when he got his food. Later, in the gym, he learned to take turns and share the ball with his friends. By the end of the day, Sam had shown he could follow the right manners everywhere at school!

Teacher's Guide

Differentiation Tips:

- Read the story aloud multiple times, emphasizing key context words.
- Provide picture cues for younger or emerging readers (e.g., a classroom, cafeteria, gym).
- Allow students to point to or circle answers instead of writing if fine-motor skills are developing.

Engagement Ideas:

- Act out each part of Sam's day, using gestures and simple props.
- Pause during reading and ask, "What should Sam do here?" to encourage prediction.

Extension Ideas:

- Have students draw their own "Good Choice" picture for one school place.
- Create a classroom poster showing examples of good behavior in different settings.
