Name _____

Recognizing Adverbs of Time in Context

The Time Traveler has hidden clues in each sentence! Your job is to underline the adverb of time in each sentence and write what time it refers to (e.g., yesterday, now, later).

Example: We will meet tomorrow at the library.
Time Word: tomorrow   Refers to: future

---

1. The parade started yesterday and ended at sunset.

   Time Word: _____   Refers to: _____

2. They are going to the science fair next week.

   Time Word: _____   Refers to: _____

3. I have already completed my assignment.

   Time Word: _____   Refers to: _____

4. She visits her grandmother every Sunday.

   Time Word: _____   Refers to: _____

5. We'll eat lunch soon after the meeting.

   Time Word: _____   Refers to: _____

6. The students practiced their lines earlier this morning.

   Time Word: _____   Refers to: _____

7. He rarely forgets his homework, but he did today.

   Time Word: _____   Refers to: _____

8. They moved into the house last year.

   Time Word: _____   Refers to: _____

9. I will call you tonight to discuss the project.

   Time Word: _____   Refers to: _____

10. We're going to clean the garage now.

    Time Word: _____   Refers to: _____