

Name _____

Revolutionary Roster Briefing – Who Am I?

As a new member of the Continental Intelligence Agency, your job is to study classified identity files on important figures from the American Revolution. Each file contains key clues - but the names have been removed!

Your task:

1. Identify the historical figure based on the bio clues.
2. Write their full name.
3. Briefly describe their role in the American Revolution.

Revolutionary Identity Files

1. Clue: I was the Commander-in-Chief of the Continental Army and led my troops through harsh winters, daring river crossings, and ultimately to victory at Yorktown.

Who am I? Name: _____ Role: _____

2. Clue: I sailed to France and secured a vital alliance that helped turn the tide of the war. I'm also known for flying kites and writing witty advice.

Who am I? Name: _____ Role: _____

3. Clue: I ruled Britain during the Revolution and refused to accept the colonies' independence. My decisions led to conflict with Parliament and the American colonies.

Who am I? Name: _____ Role: _____

4. Clue: I was a writer who didn't hold back. My pamphlet Common Sense challenged people to support independence using plain language for the common man.

Who am I? Name: _____ Role: _____

5. Clue: I rode through the Massachusetts countryside warning, "The British are coming!" My midnight mission helped prepare the militia for the battles at Lexington and Concord.

Who am I? Name: _____ Role: _____