Voices of Animal Rebellion

Directions: Read each discussion starter. Write a short response and be prepared to debate your opinion in class. Use examples from the text to support your answers.

1. Was it fair for the pigs to take the milk and apples “for their health”? Why or why not?

2. Do you think Snowball's leadership style would have been more fair than Napoleon's? Explain your reasoning.

3. Boxer trusted Napoleon and worked harder for him. Was Boxer's loyalty a strength or a weakness? Defend your answer.

4. Squealer often twisted the truth to control the animals. Is it ever acceptable for leaders to lie “for the good of the people”?

5. At the end, the animals could not tell the pigs from the humans. What does this reveal about power and corruption?
