

Name _____

Farmyard Facts Quiz

Directions: Circle the letter of the best answer for each question.

1. What event sparks the animals' decision to rebel against Mr. Jones?
A. Old Major's dream and speech
B. The destruction of the windmill
C. Napoleon's rise to power
D. Boxer's injury
2. What is painted on the barn wall soon after the rebellion?
A. The names of the animals who fought
B. The words of "Beasts of England"
C. Napoleon's laws
D. Pictures of the Seven Commandments
3. How does Napoleon first eliminate Snowball as a rival?
A. He spreads lies about him in the newspaper.
B. He convinces the sheep to drown him out.
C. He uses the dogs to chase him away.
D. He imprisons him in the barn.
4. Which of the following best describes Boxer's attitude throughout most of the story?
A. Loyal and hardworking
B. Distrustful and rebellious
C. Lazy and indifferent
D. Clever and manipulative
5. What ultimately happens to Boxer after he collapses from work?
A. He is nursed back to health by Clover.
B. He escapes to live with humans.
C. He retires peacefully in a pasture.
D. He is sold to the knacker and killed.
6. The changing of the Seven Commandments on the barn wall shows:
A. The animals' growing independence
B. The pigs' gradual corruption of ideals
C. The equality of all animals
D. The influence of Old Major's teachings
7. What happens in the final scene of the novel?
A. The animals overthrow Napoleon.
B. The pigs invite humans for a feast and walk on two legs.
C. The windmill is finally completed and successful.
D. Moses leads the animals to Sugarcandy Mountain.