When Matthew Cuthbert went to the _____ (1), he was surprised to find not a boy but a lively, red-haired girl named _____ (2). At first, Marilla thought they could not keep her, but in time they both decided that _____ (3) should stay at Green Gables.

Anne's fiery spirit got her into many scrapes. When Mrs. _____ (4) criticized her appearance, Anne lost her temper and later had to make a dramatic _____ (5). At school, Anne smashed her _____ (6) over Gilbert Blythe's head after he dared to call her " _____ " (7).

Anne also made mistakes at home. She gave Diana _____ (8) wine instead of raspberry cordial, which caused a scandal with Diana's mother. Later, when Anne tried to change her hair, the dye turned it _____ (9), forcing Marilla to cut it short. Despite these mishaps, Anne grew wiser and more determined, and in the end, she won the _____ (10) scholarship, bringing pride to Green Gables.
