

Anne's Story, Retold Answer Key

(Answers will vary. These are examples of what strong responses might include.)

1. Slate Incident Rewrite

Instead of smashing her slate, Anne stands tall and says, "Gilbert, I may have red hair, but at least I have the courage to be myself." This clever reply surprises Gilbert and earns Anne respect from her classmates without starting their long rivalry.

2. Raspberry Cordial Mishap Rewrite

Anne notices the wine bottle looks odd and realizes it is currant wine, not cordial. She quickly hides it and serves the real raspberry cordial. Diana's mother is grateful for Anne's carefulness, and the girls' friendship faces no interruption.

3. Green Hair Disaster Rewrite

The dye works perfectly, and Anne's hair turns a glossy black. She feels beautiful and confident, but Marilla reminds her that true beauty comes from character. Anne learns pride can be just as dangerous as shame.
