Reading Between Avonlea's Lines

Directions: Read each question carefully. These are not simple recall questions. Use what you know about the story and the characters to make an inference (a logical guess based on evidence). Write your answers in complete sentences.

1. Why do you think Anne was so deeply offended when Gilbert called her "Carrots"?
2. What might Anne have felt when she realized she had given Diana currant wine instead of raspberry cordial?
3. Why do you think Marilla decided to keep Anne at Green Gables, even though she originally wanted a boy?
4. What might Matthew have admired most about Anne, given his quiet and gentle nature?
5. Why do you think Anne often used her imagination to rename places like "The Lake of Shining Waters"?
6. What might Anne have learned from the disaster of dyeing her hair green?
7. Why do you think Anne was so determined to do well in school, especially compared to her peers?
8. How might Anne have felt when she won the Queen's scholarship after all her struggles?
