

Name _____

Reading Between Avonlea's Lines Answer Key

(Student answers will vary; these are sample strong responses showing reasoning.)

1. Anne was sensitive about her red hair, so Gilbert's teasing touched her biggest insecurity, making her feel humiliated.
2. She likely felt horrified, guilty, and scared that she had ruined her friendship with Diana.
3. Marilla recognized Anne's spirit and kindness, and she grew attached despite her initial practicality.
4. Matthew admired Anne's enthusiasm, honesty, and the way she brought joy and energy into his quiet life.
5. She used her imagination to make ordinary things magical, which gave her comfort and joy.
6. She learned not to rely on quick fixes to change herself and that accepting who she is might be wiser.
7. Anne wanted to prove herself and overcome her past hardships, showing that she was capable and intelligent.
8. She probably felt proud, validated, and grateful, knowing her efforts had finally been rewarded.