Opposite Makeover

Directions: Read the paragraph below. Then rewrite it by changing key words to their antonyms (opposites) to completely change the tone or meaning of the story. Try to make your rewritten version sound natural and creative!

The bright morning sun filled the small park with warmth and laughter. Children ran across the soft grass while their parents watched proudly from nearby benches. A gentle breeze carried the smell of fresh flowers, and everyone felt cheerful and calm. It was a perfect day to be outside.

Your Task: Rewrite the paragraph by flipping key words to their opposites so the meaning changes completely. Think about how you can transform a happy, sunny morning into something entirely different!
