

Name _____

Opposite Continuum

Directions: Read each set of words carefully. Arrange the words in a logical order from one extreme to its opposite, creating a smooth progression in meaning (like moving from “freezing” to “boiling”). Write them in sequence to show how intensity or tone changes across the spectrum.

1. tiny – enormous – small – large – gigantic
→ _____
2. furious – annoyed – calm – irritated – peaceful
→ _____
3. ancient – new – modern – old – prehistoric
→ _____
4. freezing – chilly – hot – cold – warm
→ _____
5. brilliant – bright – dim – dull – radiant
→ _____
6. terrified – uneasy – fearless – nervous – brave
→ _____
7. despair – sadness – joy – contentment – misery
→ _____
8. stingy – generous – selfish – giving – greedy
→ _____
9. silence – quiet – noisy – deafening – hushed
→ _____
10. failure – setback – success – triumph – loss
→ _____