

Toy Trouble

Directions: Read the short story below (or listen as your teacher reads it). Then answer the questions that follow.

Liam and Ava were playing with Ava's new toy truck during free play. Liam got excited and pushed the truck too fast—it rolled off the table and broke a wheel. Ava's eyes filled with tears. Liam felt sorry. He said, "I'm really sorry, Ava. I didn't mean to break your truck." Ava looked at him and said, "It's okay. Thank you for saying sorry." Liam helped her pick up the pieces and promised to be more careful next time. Soon they were playing together again and laughing.

1. What happened to Ava's toy truck?
  - A. It got lost
  - B. It disappeared
  - C. It was fixed already
  - D. It broke
2. What did Liam say to Ava?
  - A. "I'm really sorry."
  - B. "Let's play later."
  - C. "It's not my fault."
  - D. "That's funny!"
3. How did Ava feel after Liam said sorry?
  - A. Angry
  - B. Happy
  - C. Scared
  - D. Confused
4. What did Liam do to make amends?
  - A. He walked away
  - B. He helped fix the toy
  - C. He hid the toy
  - D. He ignored Ava
5. What can we learn from this story?
  - A. Saying sorry doesn't matter
  - B. Toys are more important than friends
  - C. Friends forgive when we make mistakes and try to fix them
  - D. Never play with others