Teacher's Guide

Skill Focus: Understanding the importance of apologizing and making amends when accidents happen.

Differentiation Tips:

- Read the story aloud with visual cues or puppets for emerging readers.
- Provide picture choices for nonreaders to point to correct answers.

Engagement Ideas:

- Have students act out the story using classroom toys.
- Encourage them to role-play their own "sorry" situations and practice kind words.

Extension Activities:

- Create a "Kind Words Wall" where students add examples of what to say when they apologize.
- Ask students to draw how it feels to say sorry and how it feels to forgive.
