

Name _____

Apology Match-Up

Directions: Read each situation below. Then choose the best apology from the list that fits what happened. Write the matching letter on the line.

A. "I'm sorry for being late. I'll try to be on time next time."

B. "I'm sorry for laughing. That wasn't kind."

C. "I'm really sorry I lost your pencil. I'll bring you another one."

D. "I'm sorry for interrupting. Please finish what you were saying."

E. "I'm sorry I forgot to help you. Can I help now or tomorrow?"

F. "I'm sorry for yelling at you. I didn't mean it."

G. "I'm sorry for spilling on your drawing. Can I help you make a new one?"

H. "I'm sorry I didn't listen. I'll pay better attention."

I. "I'm sorry for bumping you. Let me help pick up your books."

J. "I'm sorry I forgot to give your marker back. Here it is."

1. You bumped into someone in the hallway and their books fell. _____
2. You borrowed your friend's marker and forgot to return it. _____
3. You laughed when someone made a mistake during reading time. _____
4. You were late to group work and your team had to start without you. _____
5. You said something mean when you were angry. _____
6. You spilled your drink on a classmate's drawing. _____
7. You didn't listen when your teacher was talking. _____
8. You promised to help a friend with homework but forgot. _____
9. You interrupted someone during a story. _____
10. You lost your partner's pencil that they let you borrow. _____