Teacher's Guide

Skill Focus: Understanding how to choose the right apology for different social situations, emphasizing empathy and accountability.

Differentiation Tips:

- Read the scenarios aloud for students who benefit from auditory support.
- Provide visuals showing each situation to aid comprehension.
- Allow students to act out the scenarios before choosing their answers.

Engagement Ideas:

- Turn the activity into a "Manners Relay" where students run to match sentences posted around the room.
- Let small groups discuss why each apology fits and how it shows caring.

Extension Activities:

- Have students write their own apology and matching situation from real life.
- Encourage learners to create a short classroom "Apology Code" showing respectful ways to fix mistakes.
