

Name _____

Socrates on Trial

Socrates' trial, as recorded in Plato's Apology, unfolds in a sequence of speeches, defenses, and verdicts that reveal both his philosophy and the tension with Athenian society. This activity helps students understand the order of events in the trial by arranging them correctly and reflecting on their significance.

Below are ten events from Apology, but they are scrambled. Your task is to number them (1-10) in the correct order that they occur during Socrates' trial.

1. Socrates explains that his divine sign (daimonion) guided him throughout life. → _____
2. The jury delivers a guilty verdict. → _____
3. Socrates delivers his main defense, rejecting the accusations of corrupting the youth and impiety. → _____
4. Meletus, Anytus, and Lycon formally present their accusations. → _____
5. Socrates refuses to beg or appeal emotionally to the jury. → _____
6. Socrates suggests his "punishment" should be free meals at the Prytaneum. → _____
7. Socrates explains his role as a "gadfly" who awakens Athens. → _____
8. The jury votes on the penalty, and Socrates is sentenced to death.
→ _____
9. Socrates warns that silencing him will not silence the pursuit of truth.
→ _____
10. Socrates accepts his fate calmly, speaking about death and the soul's journey. → _____