Teacher's Guide

Skill Focus: Students learn to redirect off-topic or overly personal conversations with kindness and respect, reinforcing self-control, empathy, and social boundaries.

Differentiation Tips:

- Read each dialogue aloud and have students hold up response cards labeled A-D to show their choice.
- For students needing extra support, pre-teach the terms off-topic and redirect with examples.
- Encourage use of sentence stems such as "Let's get back to..." or "That sounds private, but..." to guide phrasing.

Engagement Ideas:

- Turn the worksheet into a class role-play: pairs act out the dialogues, showing both the wrong and right responses.
- Use "Kind Redirect" practice rounds where students invent their own off-topic lines and classmates must respond appropriately.

Extension Activities:

- Have students write two new dialogues where someone changes the topic politely.
- Encourage journaling on how setting boundaries can keep conversations friendly and comfortable for everyone.
