

Name _____

Setting And Topic Match

Directions: Read each situation below. Circle the letter of the topic that would be the best and most appropriate thing to talk about in that setting.

1. You are sitting with classmates at lunch. What is a good topic to talk about?
 - A. What time your mom wakes up
 - B. The worst smell in the cafeteria
 - C. How loud your baby brother cries
 - D. Your favorite kind of pizza
2. You are waiting in line for art class. What should you talk about?
 - A. How much you dislike math
 - B. The colors you want to use in your next painting
 - C. What your dog did in the backyard
 - D. The chores you have to do at home
3. You are talking to your teacher after finishing a test. What is a good thing to say?
 - A. "That test was so boring."
 - B. "I like how the questions made me think."
 - C. "Can I tell you about my video game?"
 - D. "My sister spilled juice this morning."
4. You are walking to the playground with friends. What topic fits best?
 - A. What game to play
 - B. The price of your shoes
 - C. How tired you feel
 - D. What's for dinner tonight
5. You are at a family dinner. What is a good topic to share?
 - A. The mess in your backpack
 - B. What your classmate did wrong
 - C. The funny thing that happened at school
 - D. Complaining about homework
6. You are talking with your class partner about a science project. What is a good thing to say?
 - A. "Let's plan what materials we need."
 - B. "I don't like working in groups."
 - C. "My cat kept me up last night."
 - D. "Did you see that movie yet?"
7. You are in the library with a friend. What should you talk about?
 - A. How slow the line was at lunch
 - B. The noise people make in the cafeteria
 - C. Your weekend plans
 - D. The book you are reading
8. You meet a new student in class. What is a friendly topic?
 - A. "Who is your best friend at your old school?"
 - B. "What's your house look like?"
 - C. "Do you like school so far?"
 - D. "Do you get in trouble a lot?"