

The Treasure Map Story Completion Answer Key

Story: The Treasure Map

It was an early morning when Leo found an old chest in his grandfather's attic. Inside the chest was a rolled-up map, yellowed with age. On the corner of the map was a drawing of an island, marked with a large red X.

Leo rushed downstairs to show his discovery to his sister, Emma. "This could be a real treasure map!" he whispered. She looked at him with wide eyes and nodded. They packed a backpack with snacks, water, and a compass.

By afternoon, they were walking through a forest near their house. After nearly an hour, they reached a river that matched the one on the map. They crossed it using a log and climbed over a hill covered in moss.

At the top, they spotted a clearing and ran toward it. Right in the center was a stone with strange markings. "This must be the spot!" Emma said.

They began to dig and, to their surprise, uncovered a small wooden box. Inside was a note that read:

"To those who seek treasure — you've found the reward of adventure and courage."
