Formulating Questions Answer Key

Since this activity is about student-generated questions, there's no single "correct" answer. However, here's an example of what strong questions might look like:

- Who walked to school with Maya?
 - Daniel, her little brother.
- What did Maya do when she noticed Daniel forgot his umbrella?
 - She gave him hers.
- When did the story take place?
 - One rainy morning.
- Why did Daniel hug Maya at school?
 - Because she was kind to him and gave him her umbrella.
- How did Maya show she cared for her brother?
 - She gave him her umbrella and made sure he got to school safely.

✓ Look for student questions that clearly relate to the story, use correct question words, and aim to understand the characters, actions, or events.
