Kind Request Scenes

Directions: Read each short scenario. Write what the character could politely say to ask for help in that situation, using kind and respectful words.

1. Classroom: Lila is trying to solve a math problem, but she doesn't understand the last step. She looks around and sees her teacher walking by.

2. Lunchroom: Marcus drops his fork on the floor and doesn't have another one. The lunch line is busy, and the teacher is helping another student.

3. Playground: Naomi is trying to join a group playing basketball, but she doesn't know the rules. She wants to ask politely to learn.

4. Library: Owen is looking for a book about volcanoes, but he can't find it on the shelf. The librarian is nearby, helping another student.

5. Art Room: Zara's paintbrush keeps rolling off the table, and she's running out of paper. She wants to ask her art teacher for help without interrupting others.
