Bad Or Badly Fill-Ins

Directions: Read each sentence carefully. Underline the verb in each sentence. Then decide whether to use bad or badly. Remember: if the verb shows a state of being (like is or feels), use bad. If the verb shows an action (like sings or runs), use badly.

1. The soup smells _____ after sitting out all night.

2. I played the piano _____ during my first lesson.

3. My little brother feels _____ because he caught a cold.

4. The painter worked _____ when he was tired.

5. The movie was so boring that it made me feel _____.

6. Our team played _____ in the first half but improved later.

7. The old cheese tastes _____, so don't eat it.

8. The dog behaved _____ after missing his owner all day.

9. The radio sounds _____ when the batteries are low.

10. I danced _____ because my shoes were too tight.