

Name _____

Feel Or Describe?

Directions: Read each character's sentence below. If the sentence uses bad or badly correctly, write correct. If it sounds wrong, fix it by changing badly to bad or bad to badly as needed. Remember: bad describes how someone feels, while badly describes how someone does something.

1. I feel badly after losing my friend's favorite pencil.

_____

2. My dog barked badly at the mail carrier this morning.

_____

3. I feel bad that I forgot my sister's birthday.

_____

4. The singer performed bad during the school concert.

_____

5. I felt badly when I saw my teammate get hurt.

_____

6. The cookies taste bad because we burned them.

_____

7. We played badly in the first half but got better later.

_____

8. I feel bad when I see litter in the park.

_____

9. He drove bad because the car's engine was acting up.

_____

10. I feel badly when my best friend is sad.

_____