

Name _____

Bad And Badly Fix-Its

Directions: In each sentence, find the incorrect use of bad or badly and fix it. Write the corrected version neatly below each sentence. If there are no errors, write "correct". Remember: bad describes what someone or something is like, while badly describes how someone does something.

1. I felt badly after forgetting my best friend's birthday.

2. The coach said we played bad during the first half.

3. The soup tastes badly because I used too much salt.

4. My little brother behaved bad at the grocery store.

5. I feel badly when my teacher is disappointed in me.

6. The violinist played bad at the recital.

7. The flowers smell badly after being left in the car.

8. He did badly on the test because he didn't study.

9. My mom feels badly about missing my game.

10. The singer performed bad when she had a sore throat.
