

Name _____

Cause And Effect Edit

Directions: Read the paragraph below carefully. It has several errors where because and because of are used incorrectly. Rewrite the passage correctly, fixing all the mistakes while keeping the sentences clear and logical.

When I woke up this morning, I felt tired because of I stayed up too late watching a movie. The bus was late because the heavy rain. I almost missed school because of my alarm didn't go off. In class, our teacher postponed the quiz because of some students were absent. Everyone was happy because of the extra time to study. After school, the soccer practice was canceled because the wet field. I didn't mind, though, because of I wanted to relax anyway.
