

Name _____

Preposition Editorial Fix

Directions: You are now an editor for a magazine! Read each excerpt below and correct all errors in the use of between and among. Then, rewrite the excerpt correctly. Be sure to maintain the professional tone of each piece.

Excerpt 1 - Campus Chronicle:

Tension has grown among the two rival student clubs after last week's debate competition. The event, meant to encourage collaboration, instead deepened the divide between several student groups on campus. Faculty advisors hope renewed dialogue among the debate captains can restore civility.

Excerpt 2 - Global Science Weekly:

Researchers found that cooperation between multiple international teams improved data collection on climate change. Still, disagreements persist among the two lead scientists overseeing the final report. Analysts believe progress will depend on communication among every nation involved.

Excerpt 3 - City Life Review:

The new mural downtown has become a point of discussion among the two local art critics. Their contrasting opinions reflect broader differences between the city's artistic communities. Residents gathered between the park benches and storefronts to admire the colorful display.