Preposition Storycraft

Directions: Write a short descriptive paragraph (about 6-8 sentences) that uses both between and among correctly in context. Be creative! You might describe a park scene, a sports game, a classroom, or a moment at home. After writing, circle each preposition and check that each fits its rule.

Remember:

- Use between when referring to two people, places, or things.
- Use among when referring to three or more people, places, or things in a group.

Example Starter: As the sun dipped below the horizon, I stood between two tall trees and listened to the soft music of crickets. The fireflies danced among the flowers, their glow lighting up the cool evening air.
