Opinion Flipbook

Directions: Read each paragraph carefully. Each passage shows a particular bias or point of view. Then, rewrite the paragraph from the opposite perspective, keeping the same topic but flipping the opinion or emotional tone. After rewriting, underline one word or phrase in your version that reveals your chosen bias.

Passage 1: Remote Learning

Learning from home is a huge success. Students can focus better, avoid distractions, and stay comfortable all day. It's clear that this method is far superior to sitting in a noisy classroom.

Passage 2: Zoos and Wildlife

Zoos play a vital role in protecting endangered animals. Without them, many species would already be extinct. They provide safe environments and teach people to care about wildlife.

Passage 3: Video Games and Youth

Video games are destroying the minds of young people. Kids spend hours glued to screens, forgetting about real life. It's no wonder grades are dropping and friendships are fading.

Passage 4: City Life

Living in the city is chaotic and stressful. The noise never stops, and people are always rushing. It's impossible to relax in such a crowded environment.
