Teacher's Guide

- Differentiation Tips:
  - Read each scenario aloud and discuss vocabulary like empathetic and understanding.
  - Offer visuals or role-play options for students who benefit from acting out examples.
  - Simplify answer choices or provide sentence stems for learners who need extra support.
- Engagement Strategies:
  - Have students explain why the empathetic choice is best after each question.
  - Use small-group discussions to explore how empathy can improve peer and family relationships.
  - Encourage students to share real-life examples of times they chose empathy.
- Extension Ideas:
  - Ask students to create their own empathy-based multiple-choice question to share with the class.
  - Have them rewrite one unempathetic response to make it empathetic.
  - Connect this activity to workplace readiness by discussing how empathy supports teamwork and leadership.
