Teacher's Guide

- Remind students to look for the consonant vowel consonant pattern as they hunt for CVC words in the story. Encourage them to mark each one as they read.
- Have students whisper-read the story first to build fluency, then reread to focus on comprehension and decoding.
- For learners who need more support, preview the vocabulary or let them use colored pencils to code each vowel sound.
- Extension options: Students can rewrite the ending using new CVC words, draw a scene from the story and label items with CVC words, or sort the found CVC words by vowel sound for additional practice.
