Teacher's Guide

- Encourage students to say the picture name aloud and isolate the beginning sound before writing the missing consonant.
- Support emerging learners by modeling how to stretch the word and listen for the first sound.
- Provide a consonant sound chart or letter tiles for students who need visual or tactile reinforcement.
- Extension ideas: Have students create their own missing-first-sound cards, sort completed words by vowel sound, or draw a new picture and write its full CVC word underneath.
