Teacher's Guide

- Encourage students to stretch the word and listen closely for the middle vowel sound before writing it.
- For learners who need extra help, provide a vowel chart with picture cues and practice isolating short vowel sounds separately.
- Have students tap each phoneme as they read the completed word to reinforce blending skills.
- Extension ideas: Students can sort the completed words by vowel sound, illustrate one word from each vowel group, or create new CVC words by changing the first or last consonant.
