Teacher's Guide

- This review works well as a warm up, check for understanding, or end of lesson practice on Canada.
- Encourage students to underline keywords in each question to boost comprehension.
- Allow independent or partner work depending on grade level.

Differentiation Tips

- For Grades 3 to 5:
 - Pre teach vocabulary such as Shield, territory, and region.
 - Read questions aloud and allow verbal reasoning before selecting answers.
- For Grades 6 to 8:
 - Add a quick explanation activity where students justify their chosen answer.
- For Grades 9 to 12:
 - Ask students to rewrite two questions in a more advanced way to deepen critical thinking.

Engagement Ideas

- Pause after certain questions and ask for quick map pointing on a wall map or projector.
- Allow students to create hand signals for each region mentioned to boost memory.
- Encourage peer discussions by having students compare answers before checking.
