

Name _____

Capitals And Other Corrections Answer Key

1. I love reading books about space. Do you?
2. My best friend Emily lives in Chicago, Illinois.
3. Did you see Mr. Smith at the library yesterday?
4. Wow! That was the best pizza I've ever had.
5. On Monday, we visited the White House in Washington, D.C.
6. "Can we watch The Lion King tonight?" asked Maria.
7. James replied, "Sure, let's watch it after dinner."
8. Last summer, we read Charlotte's Web in class.
9. My uncle said, "Bring the dog inside. It's starting to rain."
10. We bought tickets for Spider-Man: Across the Spider-Verse.

Teacher Notes:

- Emphasize that proper nouns (names, places, days of the week, titles) always need capital letters.
- Remind students that punctuation inside dialogue must include quotation marks and commas/periods in the correct place.
- Titles of books, movies, and works of art should be capitalized and underlined or italicized.
- Students may benefit from peer-checking each other's corrected sentences before reviewing the answer key together.