Reason & Result Stories

Directions: Choose one of the prompts below. Write a short paragraph (4-6 sentences) that clearly shows cause-and-effect relationships. Be sure to underline your causes and circle your effects.

1. Imagine a big storm hits your town. What causes the storm to affect people's daily lives?
2. Write about a time a mistake turned into a big lesson. What caused the mistake, and what were the effects?
3. Think about a school event (like a play, game, or concert). What caused the event to be successful, and what effects followed?
4. Create a mini-story about a pet that did something funny or surprising. What caused it, and what happened afterward?
