Trait Turnaround

Directions: Read the event below. First, write how the character reacts at the beginning of a story. Then, write the reaction to show how the same character responds at the end of the story after developing or changing.

Event: A character is asked to work with a partner on a class project.

Beginning of the Story: Write how the character reacts at the start, before any growth or change happens. (Example traits for early reactions: unsure, shy, impatient, stubborn, nervous.)

Beginning Reaction:

---

---

---

---

End of the Story: Rewrite the character's reaction to show how they behave after growing or changing through the story. (Example traits for later reactions: confident, cooperative, patient, friendly, open-minded.)

Ending Reaction:

---

---

---

---

Explain the Change: Write one or two sentences that explain how the reactions show character development.
